Conference on the Future of Digital Investments in the EU

The EU is at a crossroads — how should it invest in its digital future to increase competitiveness and sovereignty?

Join us in Aalborg, Denmark, to explore this critical question shaping Europe's future.

This conference will bring together voices from business, academia, and policymaking to exchange ideas, spark collaborations, and define priorities for Europe's digital transformation.

- Which research areas should come in focus?
- Which digital technologies should business invest in?
- How should policy makers prepare for the transition to specific technologies?
